

You should be ashamed of yourselves. You are helping to promote a "police state" landscape for this country. And you consider yourselves to be Americans... until the Republican party usurped the government, freedom of speech and exchange of different ideas were cornerstones of democracy. By giving so much power to so few, greedy people, you are insuring that American citizens will no longer enjoy the privileges of freedom to hear, read or express other opinions. You are despicable.

- M. Henigman